NOTIFICATION DECLINING TO GRANT PAROLE

Dear Mr. [Redacted]:

This letter is to inform you that U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) has decided not to parole you from detention at this time. Under ICE policy, arriving aliens determined by an Asylum Officer to have a credible fear of persecution or torture are initially considered for parole. While the decision whether to grant parole is discretionary, ICE policy is generally to grant parole to aliens determined to have a credible fear if they establish their identity and that they pose neither a flight risk nor danger to the community.

As part of its determination whether to parole you, on 07/23/2018, ICE conducted an initial interview with you. Your immigration files and any supplemental documentation that you provided were reviewed at that time. After reviewing all available information, ICE has determined that parole is not appropriate in your case at this time based on the following reason(s):

- You have not established your identity to the satisfaction of ICE.
  - You did not present valid, government-issued documentation of identity, or any documents you submitted did not, to ICE's satisfaction, establish your identity.
  - You did not provide third-party verification of your identity, or any third-party information you provided did not, to ICE's satisfaction, establish your identity.
  - You did not, to ICE's satisfaction, establish your identity through credible statements.
- You have not established to ICE's satisfaction that you are not a flight risk.
  - You failed to provide, to ICE's satisfaction, a valid U.S. address where you will reside while your immigration case is pending.
  - You did not establish, to ICE's satisfaction, substantial ties to the community.

Imposition of a bond or other conditions of parole would not ensure, to ICE's satisfaction, your appearance at required immigration hearings pending the outcome of your case.

You have not established to ICE's satisfaction that you are not a danger to the community or U.S. security. In making this determination, ICE has taken into account any evidence of past criminal activity, activity contrary to U.S. national security interests, activity giving rise to concerns of public safety or danger to the community, disciplinary infractions or incidents, or other criminal or detention history that shows you have harmed or would likely harm yourself or others.

Additional exceptional, overriding factors (e.g., law enforcement interests or potential foreign policy consequences) in your case militate against parole, as follows:

ICE previously provided you with a written decision declining to grant parole, and you have failed to provide additional documentation or to demonstrate any significant changed circumstances which would alter ICE's previous determination.

You may request a redetermination of this decision in writing, based upon changed circumstances in your case or additional documentation you would like ICE to consider. Such changed circumstances or documentation should relate to the reason(s) indicated above why ICE is not paroling you from custody at this time. For example, if you have not established your identity to ICE's satisfaction, you may wish to consider providing previously unfurnished government-issued documents such as passports, birth certificates, or identity cards. Identity can also be established through written statements prepared by individuals whom you know in the United States and whose identity ICE can verify to its satisfaction. These statements should include the address of the person you know in the United States and evidence of his or her identity. Finally, if there are multiple grounds checked above, you should try to provide further evidence addressing each of them.

If you request redetermination of this decision, please direct your written request to the address above, include a copy of this letter and any other prior ICE written decision(s) declining to grant you parole, and clearly explain what changed circumstances or additional documents you would like considered. Failure to provide satisfactory documentation and explanation may result in a denial of your request for redetermination.

Sincerely,

 Diane L. Witte
